FINANCIAL POLICY

Thank you for choosing Women's and Family Care to help you meet your health care needs throughout the stages of your life. Our staff is committed to providing you with the best possible care in every way, including your ease and convenience related to your financial responsibilities.

Your clear understanding of our financial policies is important to our professional relationship with you. It is important that you ask any questions or express any concerns you may have about any portion of our financial policies, including our fees and your responsibilities.

You are ultimately responsible for all charges incurred. You are ultimately responsible for meeting your particular insurance company's requirements. We gladly accept cash, personal checks, debit/check cards, credit cards and we have financing plans available through an outside company. We are happy to maintain your credit card in a secure file to auto pay your co-pays and deductible payments.

If you have insurance, we will do our best to help you receive maximum benefits. All charges are itemized for the convenience of your insurance company. We participate with most insurance plans, accepting assignment with those with whom we are contracted. For major insurance costs such as procedures, surgeries, deliveries, etc., we will do our best to estimate the amount you will owe and devise a payment plan for you.

Questions regarding your individual coverage plan need to be directed to your insurance company. Call the customer service number listed on your insurance card. Women's & Family Care will not become involved in disputes between you and your insurance company related to charges, secondary insurance, or any other matters regarding reimbursement. Women's & Family Care is not responsible for hospital, lab or other health care provider charges and will not become involved in any disputes related to charges.

There have been continual increases in private insurance companies requiring pre-certification for hospitalizations and/or procedures. If their guidelines are not carefully followed- they may refuse to pay. If so, you are responsible for payment of your account.

If you are covered by Worker's Compensation or other liability, you must provide us with all of the billing information.
